Duration: 4.00 Hrs Tour Price: CA$0.00

Date: March 17, 2022 11:15 AM

Recognize the historical significance of Cyprus through ancient landmarks and delight in the island's contemporary pleasures by shopping in stylish Limassol. Perched high on a cliff, Kourion was an important city-kingdom in antiquity and its excavated ruins reveal much about the island's past. Two buildings in particular lend insight into the preeminence of Kourion—its completely restored 2nd-century theatre and the House of Eustolios, a 30-room villa with spectacular mosaics throughout. After perusing both of them, you will stop at Kolossi Castle, an unadorned fortification built in the early 13th century for defense not architectural beauty. The Grand Commandery of the Knights of St. John's Order and the Knights Templar were both headquartered there. Although you will be surrounded by historical buildings in the oldest quarter of Limassol, the focus there will change to shopping rather than the distant past. Some of the more extraordinary items include jewelry, leather goods and fashions.

Enjoy an enlightening tour of Naples and folded pizza, a classic Neapolitan treat. Your panoramic drive will present views from affluent Posillipo Hill and of the imposing Castle Nuovo. The castle's five towers make it one of Naples' most recognizable landmarks. You will also see the Egg Castle, which holds a commanding position on the sea. In time, you will reach Spaccanapoli, a long street whose name means "Naples splitter," a reference to it somewhat dividing the city in two. Here, you will visit the Jesuit church Gesù Nuovo and the Church of Santa Chiara, which was founded in 1310 and features an austere Provençal-Gothic style. To delve even deeper into daily life, you will walk through the narrow streets of Old Town, which UNESCO has declared a Cultural Heritage site. As you will discover, there is no better setting for an espresso and portafoglio or folded pizza, as the dish was invented in Naples.
