Retail Price: CA$130.00

Date: April 26, 2022 09:15 AM

Discover the naturally beautiful villages that rim Menorca's north shore and then loop south into the island's panoramic interior before driving on to the largest beach. After departing from the pier, you will settle in for a spectacularly scenic drive north, pausing along the way for photos of seaside Port d'Addaia and lovely Arenal d'en Castell. Both towns are revered for their naturally beautiful settings, fine marinas and wide beaches. Not far away, you will find Fornells, a traditional fishing village on the north shore of Menorca. The village of meticulously preserved whitewashed buildings revolves around the sea and has become a favorite destination for sailors, windsurfers and divers. Historical attractions include a church dedicated to Saint Antoni and the ruins of several fortresses. The interior of Menorca is just as impressive, as you will discover on the way to Es Mercadal, another atmospheric whitewashed village. Its backdrop is El Toro, the island's highest point and supposedly its spiritual center. The mountain has been a pilgrimage site since the 13th century and a small church and sanctuary now sit atop the summit. After relaxing over a beverage and pastry at a bakery in Es Mercadal, you will continue south to Son Bou, the island's largest beach. As pretty as it is, the ruins of the early Christian basilica nearby may be even more noteworthy. Now enclosed by a protective wall, the stone basilica was probably constructed in the 5th century. Please note: This tour includes approximately 2.5 hours of walking. Tour not suitable for guests with limited mobility. Surfaces present inclines, cobblestones and dirt track. During the summer months, due to traffic and congestions at some sites, coach must be forced to park further away to the site and guests could be asked to walk some 10 minutes to reach the site. Guests have the option of staying on the bus if they prefer. Casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable, flat walking shoes are suggested. Tour not suitable to guests with limited mobility.

MAH-010 MENORCA BRITANNIA

Duration: 4.00 Hrs Tour Price: CA$0.00

Retail Price: CA$130.00

Date: April 26, 2022 09:30 AM

Trace the British influence on Menorca by visiting one fort that the soldiers expanded while occupying the island and then sampling gin at distillery that the British opened. After departing from the pier, you will soon arrive at Fort Marlborough, an early 18th-century fort named for the British general John Churchill, the first Duke of Marlborough. Starting in 1713, the British ruled Menorca on and off for nearly 100 years, and their influence can still be seen throughout Mahon, especially in military fortifications. While meandering around Fort Marlborough, you will learn about its construction, which features a well-concealed entry tunnel, and how the Spanish partially destroyed the fort during a siege in 1782. After the visit of the fort, you will be transferred to Es Castell: situated on the Port of Maó, it is the most British town in Spain. It was built during the 18th century by the British engineers and formally known as Georgetown (in the honor of George III of Britain). If you take a look at the street plan you will note that the streets preserve the original cross-sectioned streets reflecting its British roots and that there is a parade square together with the British barracks, with Georgian architecture featuring bow windows and typical "guillotine" windows. After a guided visit at the square, you will have some free time to visit the small fishing port. Leaving Es Castell, as further evidence of the British influence, you will visit a gin distillery that they opened in the 18th century. While touring, be sure to notice the original copper still and then enjoy a sampling of the gin.

This tour involves approximately 3 hours of walking, some of which will include inclines, steps, uneven and cobbled ground. It is not recommended for guests who utilize a wheelchair or suffer from claustrophobia. Those guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina. Casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable, flat walking shoes are suggested.

Experience the life of a sheep farmer and shepherd by visiting a characteristic farm that produces dairy products from highly prized Menorcan sheep. After departing from the pier, you will enjoy a scenic drive through the idyllic countryside to Son Triay (Ferrerries). Upon arriving, you will be welcomed at a family farm that tends a substantial herd of sheep. After an enlightening introduction to the family's lifestyle and the operation of the farm, you will walk into the fields where the sheep are grazing. Other cheeses usually contain lesser amounts of sheep's milk, which is then blended with raw or pasteurized cow's milk. You can taste the sea salt in Menorcan cheeses, the result of strong winds that soak the grazing fields with an ocean mist. The farmers may demonstrate how to milk sheep and shear them. Wool from Menorcan sheep has been prized for centuries, and the farmers will explain the attributes that make it so desirable. Following your immersion into shepherding and sheep farming, you will savor a tasting of farm-to-table dishes such as fresh-baked bread, cheeses, typical sausages and wine.

After a brief drive to Pisa, you'll alight at the UNESCO World Heritage site Campo dei Miracoli, or Field of Miracles. You'll learn the medieval architectural masterpieces found here, anchored by the Leaning Tower, date from Pisa's Golden Age as a maritime power from the 11th to the 13th century. Hear the tower started listing after a mere three stories had risen due to the unstable soil found beneath the Campo dei Miracoli, and that by the time it was completed in 1350, it was too late to rectify it. Tour the outstanding duomo, or cathedral, whose multi-level colonnades and subtle interplay of marble and stone make it the archetype of the Pisan Romanesque style. See the elaborate circular baptistery and proceed into the city proper to the Piazza dei Cavalieri, which served as the civic heart of medieval Pisa and later as the headquarters of the Knights of Saint Stephen. During time on your own, behold an expressive statue of Cosimo de' Medici that sternly supervises the daily proceedings, and contemplate the enduring legacy of the miraculous Italian Renaissance.

- Gaze at the Leaning Tower, symbol of the city and one of the world's most beguiling structures.
- Admire the sublime Duomo di Pisa, a cathedral boasting multiple tiers of colonnades on its façade.
- Delight in the ornate circular baptistery, less known but possibly as alluring as the Leaning Tower.
- See a brilliant patchwork of Renaissance buildings and an imposing statue of Cosimo de' Medici in Piazza dei Cavalieri.

After departing from the pier in a sleek vessel known as a jetfoil, you will zip across the crescent-shaped Bay of Naples. You can expect a wonderfully scenic ride with views of Mount Vesuvius all the way to Naples. Here, you will begin an inspiring tour of key landmarks in Italy's third most populous city, which will likely include the lavish Royal Palace, the Umberto Gallery and the San Carlo Theater, a world-class opera house that has become a revered symbol of Naples. Later, from atop Posillipo Hill, you will be treated to a magnificent view of the still-active volcano and the sprawling metropolis below. Before long, you will arrive Cantine del Vesuvio, a family-owned winery known for its sulfite-free organic wines. While touring the estate, you will learn about the production methods and the various wines made here, which include Lacryma Christi. The dry white variety of this wine is made entirely with Caprettone grapes, while the full-bodied red is made entirely with Piediroso grapes. The estate also produces a sweet extra-virgin olive oil and a tart wine vinegar. Following the culinary experience, you will drive back to Sorrento rather than take the jetfoil.
