Visit several iconic landmarks recognized by UNESCO as pearls of Istanbul's World Heritage site designation and roam a bustling bazaar on this arresting tour. Travel to the early 17th-century Blue Mosque, the world's only mosque featuring six minarets, and whose colorful moniker derives from the 21,000 blue-green Iznik tiles that adorn the interior. Nearby, you'll notice the remains of the city's ancient hippodrome, once a popular circus for entertainment and sporting events, especially chariot racing, during the glory days of Constantinople. Visit remarkable Hagia Sophia, first erected by Emperor Constantine in AD 325 as a Greek Orthodox Christian basilica, later converted to an Ottoman imperial mosque and now a museum, a storied sanctuary nominated by many historians to be the 8th Wonder of the World. Gaze at the sculptural minarets towering above the dome and learn they were added in 1453 after Istanbul's conquest. You'll enjoy an approximately one-hour stroll through the spectacular Grand Bazaar, Turkey's oldest and largest covered marketplace, and find a staggering wealth of merchandise in its more than 4,000 shops, a delightful end to your illuminating excursion.

- Take in several landmarks included in Istanbul's UNESCO World Heritage site designation.
- Visit the 17th-century Blue Mosque, which features six minarets and an interior showcasing 21,000 blue-green Iznik tiles.
- See the remains of the hippodrome, popular for sporting events during Constantinople's heyday.
- View breathtaking Hagia Sophia, which many historians consider the 8th Wonder of the World.
- Look up at Hagia Sophia's soaring minarets, added in the 15th century after the Ottoman conquest.
- Discover an astonishing amount of merchandise available at over 4,000 shops of the Grand Bazaar.
- Wear casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable walking shoes.
- Dress appropriately for a mosque visit; men should wear long trousers and women should cover their hair, arms and knees.
- Bring a hat, sunglasses and sunscreen.

This tour includes approximately just over 2 ½ hours of moderate walking/standing, plus any additional walking at the guest's discretion during free time. There will be some steps to negotiate. The tour is available to guests who utilize a collapsible wheelchair, are able to make their own way on and off the coach and have an able-bodied companion to assist them. Guests who utilize a wheelchair but who are not able to climb the steps may wait outside the mosque. Guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to carefully evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina. The order of the sites viewed or visited may vary in order to avoid the crowds. Please expect dense traffic conditions in Istanbul. The Blue Mosque will be closed to all visitors until after 2:30 pm on Fridays. Morning tours will have an exterior visit only. On Mondays, the Hagia Sophia Museum will be replaced with the Chora Museum. On Sundays, the Grand Bazaar is replaced with a visit to the Spice Market. Guests who go ashore do so with the understanding that they will be mixing with members of the general public.

Date: August 31, 2022 07:30 AM

Take the ferry across the Golden Horn to the Asian side of Istanbul and experience local life in two engaging, trend-setting neighborhoods. A short tram ride will then bring you to the Moda district, a gentrified area with a creative edge. While meandering about, you will see Greek and Armenian churches next to mosques and a wonderful mix of people from all nationalities. You will get an even more authentic feel while pausing for a cup of coffee at a café. A downtown walk will bring you to Kadikoy, a once sleepy neighborhood that has become a hip hotspot full of cafés and bars. Along the way, you will pass a variety of antique shops and stores selling merchandise ranging from household goods to the traditional candy lokum. Also called Turkish Delight, lokum is often flavored with coconut, dates, almonds or ginger. Lunch follows, after which you will meander through a market that will be abuzz with activity.

- Take a ferry across the Golden Horn, one of the primary inlets of the Bosphorus.
- Explore the creative, gentrified neighborhood of Moda and pause for a cup of coffee.
- Meander through the hip neighborhood of Kadikoy and enjoy a traditional lunch.

Duration: 3.50 Hrs Tour Price: $0.00

(Prices in USD, per person)

Date: August 31, 2022 07:45 AM

Rejoice in the stunning architecture and enticing aromas of Istanbul on this alluring tour of the Suleymaniye Mosque and Topkapi Palace, the latter included as jewels of Istanbul's UNESCO World Heritage site designation, and roam a fragrant market. Travel to Suleymaniye Mosque, a magnificent monument atop the waterfront skyline of Istanbul. It is a work, which typifies the Ottoman Empire at its peak, and holds the graves of Sultan Suleymaniye, and the greatest imperial architect of the era, Mimar Sinan. Upon the hill where the Acropolis of Byzantium once stood, discover the walled Topkapi Palace, official residence of Ottoman sultans for nearly 400 years. Marvel at its mosques, expansive harem and elaborate pavilions, where rich collections of French, Japanese and Chinese porcelain are on display. You'll visit the sprawling and exotically fragranced Spice Market, constructed in 1664 as part of an imperial mosque complex, and experience the sights, sounds and smells of its seemingly endless supply of spices, dried fruits and locally made merchandise such as jewelry and pottery. You'll long remember your immersion into Istanbul's bewitching wonders.

- Admire key landmarks included in Istanbul's UNESCO World Heritage site designation.
- Visit the Suleymaniye Mosque, which symbolizes the Ottoman Empire at its peak
- Explore gorgeous Topkapi Palace, the long-time residence of Ottoman sultans.
- Survey Topkapi Palace's extensive harem, impressive fountains and ornate pavilions.
- Wander the bustling Spice Market, which brims with spices, dried fruits and myriad locally produced products.
- Wear casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable walking shoes.
- Dress appropriately for a mosque visit; men should wear long trousers and women should cover their hair, arms and knees.
- Bring a hat, sunglasses and sunscreen.

This tour includes approximately three hours of moderate walking/standing, plus any additional walking at the guest's discretion during free time. There will be steps to negotiate. The tour is available to guests who utilize a collapsible wheelchair, are able to make their own way on and off the coach and have an able-bodied companion to assist them. Guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to carefully evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina. Date: August 31, 2022 08:00 AM

Cherish revered landmarks included in Istanbul's UNESCO World Heritage site designation on this engaging tour, including a 16th-century mosque, a museum housed in a historic church and a massive underground cistern, and roam an aromatic bazaar. Drive to the mid-16th-century Rustem Pasa Mosque, designed by architect Mimar Sinan and famed for its exquisite red tiles. You'll learn this color was much more difficult to achieve, so the preponderance of red-hued Iznik tiles distinguishes this mosque from all others. Appreciate its intricately carved doors and gilded trim work, which exemplify the small mosque's artistic beauty. You'll discover the 8th-century Byzantine Greek Orthodox Church of the Holy Savior, now the Chora Museum, esteemed for its mosaics and frescoes that depict themes from the Bible. At the Basilica Cistern, the largest of several hundred ancient cisterns lying beneath Istanbul, marvel at the more than 300 beautiful columns of various designs that support its vaulted brick roof. You'll stroll the sprawling and exotically fragranced Spice Market, constructed in 1664 as part of an imperial mosque complex, and experience the sights, sounds and smells of its seemingly endless supply of spices, dried fruits and locally made merchandise such as jewelry and pottery.

- Visit the enchanting Rustem Pasa Mosque, renowned for its use of red Iznik tiles.
- Survey Bible-themed mosaics and frescoes at the Chora Museum, once a Greek Orthodox church.
- Explore the stunning Basilica Cistern and view its barrel-vaulted brick roof, which is supported by over 300 columns.
- Wander the bustling Spice Market, which brims with spices, dried fruits and myriad locally produced products.
- Wear casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable walking shoes.
- Dress appropriately for a mosque visit; men should wear long trousers and women should cover their hair, arms and knees.

IST-024 TOUR GOLDEN HORN & BALAT DISTRICTS

Duration: 4.00 Hrs Tour Price: $0.00

Date: August 31, 2022 08:45 AM

Cruise the glorious Golden Horn as a prelude to meandering through Balat, a historical yet trendy neighborhood known for its colorful architecture. A large natural harbor on the European side of Istanbul, the Golden Horn is named for its shape and the shimmering golden color it takes on at sunset. It is magnificent to cruise any time of the day as you will discover on the way to Balat, one of Istanbul's oldest districts. As you walk its lively cobbled streets, the guide will describe the many Jewish, Greek, Turkish and Latin influences that reflect the wonderful diversity within Balat. Architectural treasures include a Bulgarian Orthodox church made with prefabricated cast-iron elements and the oldest surviving Greek Orthodox school, known as the Red Castle for its castellated red-brick façade. In the late 1400s, the sultan welcomed Jews to Balat that were persecuted under the Spanish Inquisition, but many of them left after the devastating 1894 earthquake.

- Cruise the famed Golden Horn, a natural harbor named for its golden hue at sunset.
- Meander through Balat, one of Istanbul's oldest and most ethnically diverse districts.
- Enjoy Balat's vibrant, fashionable ambiance while admiring its colorful architecture.
- Dress in weather-appropriate clothing.
- Wear flat comfortable walking shoes.

This tour includes approximately 2 hours of walking. Due to cobbled stone streets and boats are not being wheelchair accessible this tour is not recommended to guests who utilize a wheelchair. Those guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina.

Date: August 31, 2022 09:00 AM

Explore three distinctly different neighborhoods on the Asian side of the Bosphorus, each enchanting in its own way. A drive through the Eurasia Tunnel will bring you to the Kuzguncuk district, which has long been admired for its history of peaceful coexistence. Jews, Greeks, Armenians and Turks live there in harmony side by side, and you will notice a mosque, church and synagogue right next to each other. Later, you will pass the Kuleili Military High School where Kemal Atatürk, the founder and first president of the Republic of Turkey, studied. It is on the way to Cengelkoy, another area known for its civility. There, in the shade of a 700-year-old plane tree, you will enjoy a beverage and the serenity. The fishing village of Kanlica is known first and foremost for its firm, creamy yoghurt made with castor sugar. You will enjoy a cup of the yoghurt in the village now synonymous with it.

- Travel from Europe to Asia on a five-minute drive through the Eurasia Tunnel.
- Observe a harmonious neighborhood where different ethnicities live side by side.
- Admire the serenity of Cengelkoy, another well-known highly civil neighborhood.
- Sample a style of Turkish yoghurt in a town synonymous with it.

GL

(Prices in USD, per person)

Date: August 31, 2022 09:00 AM

Travel through some of the most atmospheric districts in Istanbul, exploring the historical inns where visiting merchants from around the world once stayed. On the way, you will pass the Sirkeci train station, where passengers first boarded the Orient Express in 1883. Upon reaching the nearby Sultanhamam district, you will browse several Ottoman inns as the guide describes how the trade system worked and how it has changed in modern times. You will then walk across the Galata Bridge that spans the Golden Horn and explore a district where Greeks and Jews primarily lived during the Ottoman period. A subway ride follows along a route that was part of an underground railway system that was constructed in the late 1870s. Upon arriving in the Beyoglu district, you will meander down Istiklal Street, which features stunning 19th-century neoclassical and art nouveau architecture. As you will see, the inns here are also impressive.

- Wander through historical Ottoman inns where foreign and local merchants stayed.
- Learn how the trade system worked during the Ottoman period and how it has changed.
- Ride the subway along a route that was constructed nearly 150 years ago.
- See the extraordinary neoclassical and art nouveau architecture in the Beyoglu district.

KSA-003 THE GLORIES OF EPHEBUS

Duration: 6.50 Hrs Tour Price: $0.00

Retail Price: $149.00

(Prices in USD, per person)

Date: September 02, 2022 10:30 AM

Discover the glory of Ephesus during a scenic and informative full-day orientation tour of this remarkable ancient city. Depart the pier for the drive to the House of the Virgin Mary, located 5 miles from Ephesus on Aladag Mountain. After discovering the house, the Archbishop of Izmir declared it a place of pilgrimage in 1892. On July 26, 1967, Pope Paul VI visited and prayed at this site. From here, you will proceed for a visit to Ephesus. One of the 12 cities of Ionia, it was a major departure point for trade routes into Asia Minor. Ephesus is renowned for its sacred ancient shrines, including a famous temple that is among the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World. Upon arrival at Ephesus, you will visit the beautiful Celsus Library, built in the beginning of the 2nd century AD. You will also see the Grand Theater; one of Ephesus' most impressive buildings, and the site where St. Paul once preached. A visit will then be made to the Temple of Hadrian, located just across the way. Lunch will be served in the garden of a local handicrafts center that is reminiscent of a typical Turkish village and employs traditional carpet-weaving techniques. After lunch, a stop will be made at the nearby Basilica of St. John before visiting the Ephesus Archeological Museum, which contains two wonderful marble statues of Artemis and 25,000 artifacts found in the ancient city. Next, you will return to Kusadasi to watch a carpet-weaving demonstration; a now traditional Turkish experience. You will sip apple tea while watching a myriad of colors unfold before your eyes, and have an opportunity to purchase a carpet, if so desired. Afterward, you may opt to re-board the coach for the return drive to the pier, or be dropped off in Kusadasi for shopping and return to the ship on foot. Please note: Guests are encouraged to wear comfortable shoes for this tour, which involves approximately 2 hours of extensive walking. This tour is not recommended for guests with limited mobility or guests who utilize a wheelchair. At the end of the tour, guests will be dropped off in town, as the buses are not allowed to return them to the Cruise Ship Terminal parking lot. There will be a short walk from the drop-off point in town back to the Kusadasi Terminal Building.

(Prices in USD, per person)

Date: September 03, 2022 08:30 AM

Travel through idyllic landscapes and thrill to awesome views during this exciting off-road look into the lovely Greek countryside. You'll start your adventure driving through a verdant valley to the small village of Profitas Ilias, a small summer resort in the heart of a mountain forest of Aleppo pines, cedars and cypress trees. You'll stop for a coffee, traditional mountain tea or soft drink in an authentic Greek village café and discover the town's alluring Italian-style houses. Journey toward Laerma, a small traditional hamlet nestled on a hill and almost hidden by a luxuriously green forest, and on to the village of Monolithos, where you will visit ruins of the 15th-century Monolithos Castle, built by the Knights of Saint John and never conquered. After savoring a delicious lunch, drive through tiny Agios Isidoros on the eastern slopes of Mount Attavyros. At the ancient city of Kamiros on Rhodes' northwest coast, you'll stop for a refreshment and a dip in the crystalline sea, if you wish, to cap your off-road adventure.

- See areas of Rhodes not usually visited by tourists on this exciting off-road adventure.
- Relax with a coffee or soft drink in the mountain village of Profitas Ilias after traversing a lush valley.
- Pass through traditional, hillside Laerma, nearly hidden by thick forest.
- Explore the 15th-century Monolithos Castle, built by the Knights of Saint John atop a craggy rock.
- Enjoy a refreshing pick-me-up at seaside Kamiros and perhaps take a cooling swim.
- Wear casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable walking shoes.
- Bring a hat, sunglasses and sunscreen.
- Wear swimwear under a cover-up and bring a towel from the ship, if you wish to swim.

This tour involves a moderate amount of walking. The tour is guided by a lead driver and an escort will ride in the last off-road vehicle to ensure the caravan of guests stays together. Guests must be at least 24 years of age and have a valid driver's license in their possession to drive. Each off-road vehicle carries a driver and three passengers. Retail Price: $129.00

(Prices in USD, per person)

Date: September 03, 2022 08:45 AM, 01:00 PM

Appreciate the historic beauty and myriad flavors of Rhodes during this city tour and winery visit. Travel through modern Rhodes, viewing the Mandraki Esplanade, which is lined with government buildings, the Dodecanese Church of the Annunciation and Mandraki Harbor, purportedly the site of the Colossus of Rhodes, one of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World. Continue up Mount Smith to the acropolis and see an ancient stadium built in the 2nd century BC. Pass through the Old Town's grand Gate d'Amboise and begin your guided walking tour of this UNESCO World Heritage site. You'll see the restored 14th-century Gothic palace that in times of war served as a fortress and during peacetime as a residence for the Grand Master of the Knights of Rhodes and a meeting place for senior knights. Continue down the Avenue of the Knights, an unbroken wall of crusaders' honey-colored stone homes punctuated by huge doorways and arched windows, and pass the magnificently preserved 15th-century Archeological Museum, formerly the knight's hospital. Conclude your excursion with a visit to a specially selected winery and, after an enjoyable tour, savor a glass with a delicious meze.

- View Mandraki Harbor, where the fabled Colossus of Rhodes may have once stood.
- Discover the Acropolis of Rhodes and a 2nd-century BC stadium from atop Mount Smith.
- Enter Rhodes' Old Town, a UNESCO World Heritage site, through the striking Gate d'Amboise.
- Admire the perfectly restored Gothic Palace of the Grand Master of the Knights of Rhodes.
- Bask in the noble ambiance of the Avenue of the Knights.
- Savor a glass of wine with a delectable meze at a local winery.
- Wear casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable walking shoes.
- Bring a hat, sunglasses and sunscreen.

This tour includes approximately ½ mile of moderate walking. There will be uneven surfaces and steps to negotiate. It is not recommended for guests who utilize a wheelchair. Those guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina. Participants must be at least 21 years of age to be served alcoholic beverages.

RHO-012 SAILING IN RHODES (PRICED PER BOAT)

Duration: 5.25 Hrs Tour Price: $699.00

Date: September 03, 2022 08:50 AM

Sail along the island's beach-blessed eastern shore, taking in the magnificent scenery and stopping along the way to swim and snorkel. One of the most beautiful stretches of sand is Kalithea Beach, which earned a Blue Flag eco-designation for the high quality of its water and strict environmental preservation. Because the sea is so clear there, snorkeling is particularly popular. Schools of porgies, brightly colored wrasses and damsel fish are commonly spotted along the rocky bottom just offshore. You will also visit a beach farther south that is so gorgeous that Anthony Quinn purchased it after filming "The Guns of Navarone" in the area in 1960. Named for the actor ever since, the beach offers excellent snorkeling and swimming as the waters are remarkably transparent. The smallish cove that shelters the beach couldn't be more photogenic. Following your beach activities, you will enjoy lunch on your vessel before returning back to port.

- Admire the gorgeous coastal scenery as you sail along the eastern shore of Rhodes.
- Swim and snorkel at Kalithea, a Blue Flag beach known for its excellent water quality.
- Relax on a spectacularly beautiful beach that actor Anthony Quinn once owned.
- Dress in weather-appropriate clothing with a swimsuit underneath.
- Bring a towel and sunscreen.
- Wear flat comfortable walking shoes.

* Only ONE guest needs to book this tour. Tour is priced per boat and can accommodate up to 8 guests per boat. Tour is not available to guests who utilize a collapsible wheelchair as there is a narrow gangway and steep ladder to negotiate to board the vessel. Those guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina. Guests who go ashore do so with the understanding that they will be mixing with members of the general public at the beaches and stops. If cancellation of this tour is made within 5 days of arrival in the excursion port, there will be a 100% cancellation fee charged to the guest's shipboard account.

RHO-013 KAYAK ADVENTURE

Duration: 4.00 Hrs Tour Price: $0.00

Date: September 03, 2022 09:00 AM, 01:00 PM

Paddle a kayak along the extraordinarily beautiful eastern shore of Rhodes with relaxing stops along the way to swim, snorkel or simply admire the scenery. After an introductory briefing to help you maximize the kayaking experience, the adventure will begin at Kathara Beach, a lengthy stretch of sand where the seas are typically calm. As you paddle along at a comfortable pace, you will pass one spectacular setting after another, including Mandomata Beach and an uninhabited rocky promontory that you will round on the way to Anthony Quinn Beach. Originally known as Vagies Beach, it was renamed for the actor that purchased it after filming "The Guns of Navarone" on Rhodes in 1960. The pier that you will see across the small cove is named for the movie. There will be several opportunities where the water is especially calm to pause for a refreshing swim and to snorkel.

- Kayak along the eastern shore of Rhodes between two of its loveliest beaches.
- Paddle to Anthony Quinn Beach, a beautiful stretch of sand that the actor once owned.
- Pause to swim and snorkel where the transparent waters are particularly calm.
- Dress in weather-appropriate clothing with a swimsuit underneath.
- Bring a towel and sunscreen.
- Wear flat comfortable walking shoes.

This tour includes moderate to strenuous activity and paddling for nearly 2½ hours. The tour is not available to wheelchair guests or those with mobility concerns. Guests should be in good physical condition. Kayakers must wear the provided safety vests. Pack valuables in a watertight container. Guests participating in water activities do so at their own risk and responsibility.

RHO-GL1 RHODES TRADITIONAL INLAND VILLAGES

Duration: 6.00 Hrs Tour Price: $119.00

Retail Price: $269.00

GL

Date: September 03, 2022 09:00 AM

Soak up the rural atmosphere in several inland villages while sampling classic Greek specialties. While pausing at a bakery in the small farming community of Psinthos, you will see how Greek sourdough bread is made from scratch and baked in a wood-fired oven. You can expect the experience to be an enlightening and genuine look at traditional village life. Your time in Apollona will be similarly captivating. While walking through the village, you will visit a historical church and then pause at a café for a glass of ouzo and a meze. The village of Salakos is also traditional and incredibly scenic as it is surrounded by dense forests, ancient olive groves and vineyards with grape varieties such as athiri. The grape leaves are used for dolmades, which you will sample while the guide elaborates on their preparation. Grapes are also used to produce the aperitif souma, which you will sample with a traditional barbecue lunch.

- Experience an authentic slice of rural life in three inland villages.
- Sample a selection of local specialties that are synonymous with the villages.
- Enjoy sourdough bread, ouzo and dolmades before dining on a traditional barbecue lunch.
- Dress in weather-appropriate clothing. • Clothing must cover your knees and shoulders to enter the church. • Wear flat comfortable walking shoes.

This tour includes about two hours of walking and standing with some inclines and cobblestone surfaces to negotiate. It is not available to wheelchair guests and may not be suitable for those with mobility concerns, who should evaluate their stamina and ability before joining the tour.

RHO-009 EXPLORING RHODES RELIGIOUS PAST

Duration: 4.50 Hrs Tour Price: $0.00

Retail Price: $69.00

(Prices in USD, per person)

Date: September 03, 2022 09:15 AM

Follow a theology expert through medieval Rhodes and explore the mosques, synagogues and churches that reveal the city's history and religious tolerance. After departing from the pier, you will soon pause for photos at Monte Smith, a hilltop named for a distinguished British admiral in the French Revolutionary Wars. From this spectacular vantage point, you will enjoy a bird's-eye view of Rhodes, the Temple of Apollo and a stadium from the Hellenistic period built on the slopes of Monte Smith. You will then enter the medieval section of Rhodes through the St. Athanasios Gate, which leads to a treasure-trove of religious sites. The theology expert guide will elaborate on how the various denominations peacefully coexisted side by side. You will see a mosque built during the 16th-century rule of Ibrahim Pasha, the oldest synagogue in Greece, and Catholic Church of Santa Maria, which features beautiful frescoes. Other religious highlights include the Orthodox church of St. Fanourios. It is easy to differentiate the different architectural styles within the latter, as the ruling Ottomans and Italians made several additions over the centuries. The Church of St. Fanourios still functions as the parish church. Following your immersion into the diverse religions that have been practiced in Rhodes, you will pause for a snack at a café before returning to the pier.

This tour includes approximately 2 of hours of walking over uneven and cobblestone surfaces in the Medieval Town. It is not recommended for guests who utilize a wheelchair. Those guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina. Casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable, flat walking shoes are suggested.

ALA-001 SIDE & ASPENDOS

Duration: 4.50 Hrs Tour Price: $0.00

Retail Price: $169.00

Date: September 04, 2022 09:15 AM

Explore two of Turkey's intriguing ancient cities on this illuminating tour. Journey for approximately one hour to age-old Side, a stunning seaside village where Marc Antony and Cleopatra's romance flourished, and stroll broad, colonnaded streets lined with ancient buildings to a central forum where pirates once sold their cargo. Admire the 2nd-century, 15,000-person theater, once home to legendary gladiatorial bouts but converted into a massive open-air church in the 5th century. You'll find remains of three temples on the theater's fringes, one dedicated to Dionysus, the god of wine, and the others honoring Apollo and Artemis. Survey a rich collection of artifacts unearthed during Side's excavation at the Archaeological Museum, located in old baths from the Roman period. Following a drive to a scenic hilltop near the Eurymedon River, you'll visit the once-major port of Aspendos and encounter a beautifully preserved 2nd-century Roman theater built during the reign of Marcus Aurelius. Imagine a performance among the ruins, where the perfect acoustics often render microphones unnecessary. Cap your immersion into Turkey's past with a view of an ancient aqueduct, once used to supply the city's water, and lose yourself in dreams of days gone by.

- Discover ancient Side's colonnaded avenues and central forum, where pirates once hawked their plunder.
- Hear distant echoes of a crowd 15,000 strong at the 2nd-century theater, once the site of gladiatorial combat.
- See the vestiges of three temples that were dedicated to the gods Dionysus, Apollo and Artemis.
- Study age-old artifacts at the Archeological Museum, which is housed in ancient Roman baths.
- Visit one of the world's best-preserved Roman theaters in Aspendos and test its perfect acoustics.
- View a timeworn aqueduct, once the main water source for the Roman city of Aspendos.
- Wear casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable walking shoes.
- Bring a hat, sunglasses and sunscreen.

This tour includes a moderate amount of walking. There will be uneven surfaces and steps to negotiate. The tour is not available to guests who utilize a wheelchair. Guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina. The order of sites viewed or visited may vary.

Reflect on bewitching Nicosia's singular status as the last divided capital city in the world after the fall of the Berlin Wall, with Turkey and Greece each claiming half, on this fascinating island coach tour. In Nicosia, the largest settlement on Cyprus, ponder how the walled historic heart is blended with modern neighborhoods. Visit the Cathedral of St. John, built in 1662 by the Archbishop Nikiforos, whose unassuming exterior belies the stunning 18th-century frescoes entirely covering the walls within. Browse the most significant collection of Cypriot antiquities at the Cyprus Archaeological Museum, where artifacts spanning 5,000 years of the island's history from the Neolithic Age to Byzantium include tomb monuments, bronze statues and rare coins. Gaze upon the museum's masterpiece, the exquisite statue of Aphrodite from Soli, now the symbol of Cyprus. You'll catch a glimpse of the city's northern Turkish side as you pass a checkpoint on the notorious Green Line that divides Nicosia, and proceed through the impressive Venetian Walls into Nicosia's oldest section via the imposing Paphos Gate. Cap your day with free time in the restored 19th-century neighborhood of Laiki Yitonia and explore its narrow pedestrian streets lined with traditional homes, craft shops, taverns and galleries.

- Learn how enchanting Nicosia became the world's only remaining divided capital, shared by Turkey and Greece.
- Marvel at the vivid frescoes completely covering the walls of the 1662 Cathedral of St. John.
- View countless treasures at the Cyprus Archaeological Museum, including the island's symbol, the lovely Aphrodite from Soli.
- Consider the city's split personality at a checkpoint on the Green Line.
- Admire the commanding Venetian Walls and Paphos Gate as you enter Nicosia's old city.
- Shop and stroll the inviting cobbled streets of Laiki Yitonia, a charming 19th-century neighborhood.
- Wear casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable walking shoes.
- Bring a hat, sunglasses and sunscreen.

This tour includes approximately 1 ½ hours of walking, plus any additional walking at the guests' discretion during free time. It is not available to guests who utilize a wheelchair. Guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina. Museums in Limassol are closed on Mondays, so museum visits will be replaced with a visit to the picturesque village of Lefkara for all calls that fall on a Monday.

View astonishing remnants of antiquity in the seaside town of Paphos and at the ancient ruins of Kourion, enjoying a typical Cypriot lunch on this coach tour into the past. Glide through vineyards and the Phasouri citrus groves to stirring Petra tou Romiou, symbol of Paphos and the legendary site where Aphrodite, ancient Greek goddess of Beauty and Love, was birthed from the foamy waves. You'll discover that modern-day Paphos is a quaint resort town, but in Hellenistic and Roman times, it was the grand capital of Cyprus. Moving from the picturesque fortress guarding the harbor to the enchanting mosaics in the 3rd-century House of Dionysos, you'll quickly learn why this is a revered UNESCO World Heritage site. Savor free time to shop or explore picture-perfect Paphos before a lovely lunch of Cypriot specialties near the ancient city of Kourion, blanketed with intricate mosaics, which also boasts a superb Greco-Roman theater built in the 2nd century BC, still in use today. You'll appreciate the spectacular views of the ruins and sapphire seas from the theater's cliff-top location, an ideal vantage point from which to contemplate Cyprus' vital role in the classical age.

- Behold Petra tou Romiou, the very spot where Aphrodite is said to have emerged from the frothing sea.
- Visit seaside Paphos, a UNESCO World Heritage site teeming with landmarks from the classical and medieval ages.
- Enjoy a traditional lunch of Cypriot delicacies at a welcoming tavern.
- Admire splendid mosaics and a still-used Greco-Roman theater in the ancient city of Kourion.
- Delight in spectacular views of Kourion's classical-age ruins and the sparkling Mediterranean.
- Wear casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable, non-slip walking shoes.

LML-GL3 TASTE OF CYPRUSDuration: 6.50 Hrs Tour Price: $69.00*Retail Price: $209.00*GL*Date: September 06, 2022 07:45 AM, 07:45 AM

Enjoy an authentic taste of Cyprus by sampling regional products, wines made with indigenous grapes and dishes that reflect the Mediterranean climate. In the village of Angogyra, you will gain insight into how caffeine-free carob pods are ground into flour and substituted for chocolate in recipes. Carob is also used in a sweet toffee that you will watch being made. To gain an understanding of Cypriot wine, you will tour two vineyards that make the most of their terroirs. The Lambouri Winery's grapes grow on the southern slopes of the Troodos Mountains and that high elevation gives the grapes a distinct taste that you will recognize during a sampling. Another glimpse into Cypriot gastronomy awaits you at the Apsiou Tavern, where the chef will demonstrate how to prepare dishes such as koupepia. Feel free to join in and help to stuff the vine leaves with locally sourced ingredients such as minced pork, tomatoes and rice. Lunch follows.

- See the importance of carob in local recipes as a substitute for chocolate.
- Sample carob toffee, yoghurt with carob drizzle and several wines at two vineyards.
- Help a chef prepare a local dish before dining on a traditional meze lunch.
- Dress in weather-appropriate clothing.
- Wear flat comfortable walking shoes.

This tour includes about 2½ hours of walking and standing over even and uneven ground. It is not available to wheelchair guests and may not be suitable for those with mobility concerns, who should evaluate their stamina and ability before joining the tour. Guests who go ashore do so with the understanding that they will be mixing with members of the general public.

Retail Price: $239.00

GL (Prices in USD, per person)

Date: September 06, 2022 07:45 AM, 07:45 AM

Experience traditional rural life by making bread, sampling cheeses and coffee, and conversing with villagers. While visiting the family-operated Hadjiorkis flour mill in Frenaros, you will learn how the milling process has changed over the decades. You will then combine the necessary ingredients and make your own whole wheat bread shaped like a boule, from the French word for ball. Feel free to sample it at the mill and take the remaining loaf with you on the way to Athienou village. Your host there will be the mayor, who will lead you on an enlightening insider's tour of the area, which was first settled in the Neolithic period that began about 12,000 ago. Later, you will enjoy a cup of strong coffee made in a long-handled pot called a mbriki. Other highlights include a tasting of halloumi and anari cheeses made in a 19th-century creamery and a revealing conversation with an Orthodox priest.

- Sample a loaf of wheat bread that you will make at a mill and take the rest with you.
- Follow the mayor of Athienou around the historical village and pause for a cup of coffee.
- Sample cheeses and converse with a local priest.
- Dress in weather-appropriate clothing.
- Wear flat comfortable walking shoes.

This tour includes about three hours of walking and standing over even and uneven ground with dozens of steps. It is not available to wheelchair guests and may not be suitable for those with mobility concerns, who should evaluate their stamina and ability before joining the tour. Guests who go ashore do so with the understanding that they will be mixing with members of the general public.

LML-008 THE WINE FROM ANCIENT TIMES

Duration: 6.00 Hrs Tour Price: $0.00

(Prices in USD, per person)

Date: September 06, 2022 08:00 AM

Enjoy enlightening tours of vineyards that grow ancient Cypriot grape varieties and sample wines much like those that were produced centuries ago. The family-owned Zambartas winery is credited with re-discovering a dozen lost varieties and you will sample several of those wines, some of which may be organic. Similarly, Mallia Estate is dedicated to restoring ancient Cypriot grape varieties such as the Maratheftiko, which was mentioned in documents as far back as the Middle Ages. The wine has been re-introduced and may be among the ones you sample there along with local delicacies. If so, be sure to note its distinct aromas of violet and black cherries. You will also visit the Gerolemos winery, another family-owned operation that produces traditional Cypriot wines. Chances are, you will sample a fruity Morokanella and a Riesling that is often served as an aperitif. It is known for its nose of limes and lemons and nuances of fresh grapefruits.

- Visit three wineries that have resurrected Cypriot grape varieties known in ancient times.
- Discover how the grapes were brought back and how they reinvigorated the local industry.
- Sample wines that reflect the terroirs of the three vineyards.
- Dress in weather-appropriate clothing.
- Wear flat comfortable walking shoes.

This tour includes approximately 1.5 hours of walking and standing over uneven surfaces. Coaches do not have a lift and entering and exiting must be done via stairs. It is not available to guests who utilize a wheelchair. Those guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina. Casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable, flat walking shoes are suggested.

Explore the lifestyles in the two vastly different sides of Nicosia by crossing the demilitarized zone that separates the Greek side from the Turkish side. Your immersion into local life will begin in Laiki Geitonia, a traditional Greek Cypriot neighborhood in the south. Many of the sandstone buildings date to the 18th century and have been beautifully restored. Then, after stopping for coffee and a sweet known as bougaza, you will walk to the Green Line, the long United Nations Buffer Zone that has divided the entire island since 1974. On the Turkish side of the line, you explore Buyuk Han, a Ottoman-designed 16th-century caravansary that has been restored for merchants to sell their wares once again. This snapshot of local life, along with watching whirling dervishes, will show you that some aspects of Nicosia have changed little. To further understand the divisions within Nicosia, you will converse with two local journalists—one a Greek Cypriot, the other a Turkish Cypriot.

- Experience life on both sides of Nicosia, Europe's only divided capital.
- Explore a Greek Cypriot neighborhood with restored 18th-century buildings.
- Cross the Green Line that separates Nicosia and enter the Turkish side.
- See whirling dervishes and speak to two journalists—one Greek, the other Turkish.
- Dress in weather-appropriate clothing.
- Wear flat comfortable walking shoes.

Drive into the gorgeous countryside and meet the owners of a winery and a restaurateur who will demonstrate how to make traditional products. You will first visit the 12th-century monastery Agios Neophytos and observe the founding monk's cave that he hand-carved. The interior is covered with extraordinary Byzantine frescoes. This remote area is also ideal for winemaking because the stony, free-draining soil forces the grape roots to grow deep and absorb character from the earth. To further understand the terroir, you will visit the winery Tsangarides in nearby Lemona. After touring the vineyards and observing the production process, you will sample a selection of wines. Continuing on to the village of Kallepia, you will visit Kika's Garden Homemade Food and Produce. The proprietor Kika will demonstrate how to make a rustic Cyprus bread and traditional marmalades from lemons, oranges and even blueberries. Besides sampling these goodies, you will be served an organic brunch made with fresh, locally sourced ingredients.

- Observe the interior of a cave that a 12th-century monk hand-carved from solid rock.
- Tour a winery to understand the challenges of growing grapes there and to sample wines.
- Savor an organic lunch before watching how Cyprus bread and marmalades are made.
- Dress in weather-appropriate clothing.
- Dress appropriately to enter the monastery: no sleeveless clothing, shorts or short skirts.
- Wear flat comfortable walking shoes.

LML-GL4 CRAFTS & GASTRONOMY - BASKET WEAVING, HONEY, CHDuration: 6.00 Hrs Tour Price: $0.00*Retail Price: $159.00*GL*(Prices in USD, per person)*Date: September 06, 2022 08:30 AM

Gain an appreciation for some of Cyprus' crafts and foods by visiting a traditional baker, beekeeper and basket weaver. Your first stop will be the village of Larnaca, where you will stop at the Byzantine church Agios Lazaros and at a bakery for a snack of koupes, a traditional street food stuffed with minced meat and spices. Cyprus is known for its extraordinary honey, which you will hear about from a beekeeper in the rustic village Valva. You will also taste the honey, which may reflect a bouquet of flora such as thyme, eucalyptus and orange blossom. Once you arrive in the village of Chirokotiia, artisan Petros Nicolaou will demonstrate the art of basket-weaving, a trade he learned from his grandparents. It takes about three hours to make a single basket from water reeds, and it is a fascinating process. While observing Nicolaou's artistry, you will sample local delicacies that include halloumi cheese made in a basket.

- Stop in a historical village to snack on a traditional street food known as koupes.
- Sample honey that reflects the flavors of the local flora in another village.
- Watch a basket weaver demonstrate his prodigious talents as you snack on local cheese.
- Dress in weather-appropriate clothing.
- Dress appropriately to enter the monastery: no sleeveless clothing, shorts or short skirts.
- Wear flat comfortable walking shoes.

Experience the splendid natural appeal of the Turkish Riviera during this idyllic sailing cruise along the glittering bays and quiet coves of Marmaris. After a brief coach transfer from the pier to the marina, board a traditional Turkish two- or three-masted wooden boat called a gulet. You'll glide past the sun-kissed beaches and rocky hills of Keçi Adasi Island, delighting in the gentle sea breeze. Gaze at the Nimara Peninsula, which has been officially recognized and protected for its natural and archeological heritage. Notice the thriving olive trees, pines and shrubbery that blanket both Keçi Adasi and the peninsula. Appreciate the opportunity for a cooling swim, if you choose. As you skim across the sparkling, crystalline water, enjoy refreshing beverages and marvel at the pristine beauty of this Turkish paradise known as the Turquoise Coast.

- Revel in a leisurely cruise viewing the natural beauty of the Turkish Riviera.
- Skim the azure bay waters in a traditional masted wooden boat called a gulet.
- Appreciate the craggy hills of Keçi Adasi Island, dotted with pine and olive trees.
- Admire the Nimara Peninsula, recognized for its natural and archeological value.
- Relish cooling refreshments on board during your relaxing sail.
- Take a dip in the crystalline waters, if you desire.
- Wear casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable walking shoes.
- Bring a hat, sunglasses and sunscreen.
- If you wish to swim, given the opportunity, wear a swimsuit under a cover-up and bring a change of clothes and a towel from the ship.

This tour includes a walk of approximately 70 yards in each direction from the coach to the marina dock. It is not available to guests who utilize a wheelchair. Guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina. Guests should be able to make their own way on and off the boat. The cruise lasts approximately three hours, and there are restrooms available on board. Guests who participate in any water activities do so at their own risk and responsibility. Operation of the tour is dependent upon cooperative weather conditions.

MAM-002 DALYAN RIVER & ANCIENT CARIAN CITY OF KAUNOS

Duration: 6.50 Hrs Tour Price: $0.00

Retail Price: $155.00

Date: September 07, 2022 10:30 AM

Delight in a leisurely river cruise and visit ancient Hellenistic ruins on this enlightening tour. After a vista-filled 75-minute coach ride, arrive at Dalyan, located on the east bank of the Dalyan River, which flows from Koycegiz Lake to the Mediterranean Sea. You'll board a local boat and glide across the placid river, stopping for photos at striking rock tombs along the way. On the river's western bank, discover the remains of the ancient walled city of Kaunos, a UNESCO World Heritage site. You'll explore the fortification's tower and gate on Acropolis Hill, and wander among rock-cut Lycian tombs, a theater, a Byzantine church and a terrace temple. Re-embarking your boat, you'll view Iztuzu Beach, a narrow spit of land which forms a natural barrier between the freshwater delta of the Dalyan River and the sea. HER-003 THE PALACE OF KNOSSOS

Retail Price: $129.00

Date: September 08, 2022 08:45 AM

Explore Knossos, one of Crete's finest archaeological sites, on this enriching historical study of the great King Minos' enthralling capital city. Learn about the original palace, constructed around 1900 BC and destroyed several hundred years later by a devastating earthquake, and of the much grander replacement that followed. You'll view remains that were carefully excavated over a century ago, some of which were painstakingly restored by Sir Arthur Evans. Notice the four expansive wings spreading outward from the complex's heart, which formed an elaborate compound that once served as the ceremonial and political center of the ancient Minoan civilization. Walk the labyrinthine site to take in the royal living quarters, halls where state occasions were held, a theater area, storage rooms and potters' workshops. Understand how the once-controversial restoration now offers great insight into the intricacies of Minoan life nearly 4,000 years ago. After your enlightening tour, relish free time in Heraklion for shopping or strolling around Crete's delightful capital city.

- View the ruins of the original palace of Knossos, the 1900 BC capital of Minoan Crete.
- Study painstakingly restored remains unearthed during an early 20th-century excavation.
- Immerse yourself in the region's one-time ceremonial and political center.
- Enjoy time on your own for exploring or shopping in compelling Heraklion.
- Wear casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable walking shoes.
- Bring a hat, sunglasses and sunscreen.

Retail Price: $129.00

Date: September 08, 2022 08:45 AM

Explore the excavated palace of the mythological king Minos and other ruins in Knossos using 3D software that shows how the structures appeared thousands of years ago. After departing from the pier, you will enjoy a brief drive inland to Knossos, once the capital of ancient Minoan Crete. The area was first inhabited in the seventh millennium B.C., and its grandeur has been slowly revealed through archaeological excavation. The palace that once stood here was known as the seat of power of the legendary King Minos, and the remains of this UNESCO World Heritage site reflect the glory of former times. From 1900 to 1931, British archaeologist Sir Arthur Evans supervised the excavation of the Palace of Knossos and the surrounding area, and you will see firsthand some of the treasures that have been uncovered. There are royal quarters, shrines, a royal villa, workshops, banquet halls and other preserved monuments from the Minoan civilization. Portions of the ruins have been reconstructed using modern materials to show how they appeared in ancient times. For a more in-depth view of the structures, simply use the provided electronic tablet with 3D augmented-reality software. Just point the tablet's camera at a ruin, and you will see the structure as it originally stood centuries ago. After a thorough walking tour of Knossos, you will return to Heraklion to sightsee on your own. You might browse the boutiques or seek out highlights such as the 17th-century Morosini Fountain in Lions Square before returning to the pier.

The guided portion of this tour involves approximately 1½ hours of walking over uneven pavement and grounds. There is also approx. 15 steps to negotiate. The tour is not available to wheelchair guests. Those guests with mobility concerns are cautioned only to participate to the extent of their personal stamina and ability. Weather appropriate clothing; sun cap; sunglasses; and flat, comfortable walking shoes are recommended sunglasses; and flat, comfortable walking shoes are recommended.

Retail Price: $149.00

Date: September 08, 2022 09:00 AM

Visit the ancient Minoan Palace of Phaistos, considered by many to be the finest and most emblematic of Minoan mansions. After a scenic journey, arrive at the Palace of Phaistos, located on the crest of a hill dominating the Messara Valley and once the home of King Rhadamanthus, brother of King Minos. Learn that the valley contains remains of two castles, the first of which was used for about three centuries before it was destroyed around 1700 BC. View the original palace ruins, as well as those of its replacement, which met its own destruction around 1400 BC. Marvel at the majestic courtyards, the theater, living quarters and other remains, all of which symbolize the highly developed and peaceful Minoan civilization. With the Messara Plain to the east and Mount Ida to the north, you'll discover the Palace of Phaistos boasts the most beautiful setting of any of the Minoan residences, providing the perfect surroundings in which to contemplate life during the glory days of this ancient civilization.

- Explore the Palace of Phaistos, once occupied by King Minos' brother, King Rhadamanthus.
- Appreciate the palace's commanding hilltop position above the Messara Valley.
- Discover ruins of two palaces, one built in 1400 BC after the destruction of the original 300 years earlier.
- Find stately courtyards, a theater and other evidence of the Minoans' advanced development.
- Admire the Palace of Phaistos' stunning views of storied Mount Ida and the Messara Plain.
- Wear casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable walking shoes.

HER-GL1 CRETAN VILLAGE OF KROUSONAS

Duration: 5.00 Hrs Tour Price: $79.00

Retail Price: $229.00

GL (Prices in USD, per person)

Date: September 08, 2022 09:00 AM

Explore the village of Krousouas and engage in activities that will provide an authentic glimpse into daily life. Your first stop will be the St. Irene of Krousouas Monastery, which was extraordinarily affluent in the 1600s. However, the monastery was abandoned during the Ottoman rule of Greece, left in ruins and not rebuilt until 1940. Following an enlightening tour of the monastery now turned convent, the resident nuns will offer you a homemade sweet. You will next visit the village of Krousouas to meet some of the shopkeepers, starting with a boot maker and baker. Both will be quite willing to discuss their businesses and day-to-day lives. To become even further immersed in the local culture, you will watch a folkloric dance performance, see a cheese-making demonstration, learn to prepare Cretan cheese pie, and taste local varieties of olive oil and wine. Few culinary experiences are so wide ranging and informative. A traditional Cretan lunch follows.

- Delve into local life in Krousouas, a village on the eastern slopes of the Ida Mountains.
- Browse a convent that was an affluent monastery in the 17th century.
- Converse with shopkeepers, watch a folkloric performance and sample traditional foods.
- Dress in weather-appropriate clothing.
- Be sure to cover shoulders and knees to enter the monastery.
- Wear flat comfortable walking shoes.

This tour includes about 2½ hours of walking and standing with some cobblestone surfaces and inclines to negotiate, plus any additional walking at the guests' discretion during free time. The tour is not available to wheelchair guests and may not be suitable for those with mobility concerns who should evaluate their stamina and ability before joining the tour. JTR-007 WINDMILLS & AMAZING AKROTIRI

Duration: 4.00 Hrs Tour Price: $0.00

Retail Price: $119.00

Date: September 09, 2022 08:15 AM, 01:30 PM

Uncover ancient Santorini landmarks that reveal life on the island 3,500 years ago, when a volcanic eruption created a huge caldera in the island's center that filled with the Aegean Sea. You'll travel south to the picturesque windmill ruins that have become a Santorini icon and marvel at sweeping panoramic views of the sparkling Aegean Sea and beyond. Discover remains of the ancient village of Akrotiri, preserved in ash since a powerful volcanic eruption in the middle of the 2nd-millennium BC and systematically excavated since 1967. After a brief stroll through the contemporary sections of Akrotiri, delve into the primary archeological site to view the remains of commercial buildings that once lined the main street, prominent two-story homes with colorful frescoes and large earthen jars with traces of olive oil, fish and onion inside, all which offer a mesmerizing step back into urban life during the Minoan period. Following your exploration of Akrotiri, you'll return to Fira, where you may choose to remain in town for sightseeing or shopping, if you wish.

- Discover the captivating ruins of Santorini's oft-photographed windmills.
- View Akrotiri village's surviving remains from a devastating volcanic eruption.
- Marvel at excavations begun in 1967 that exposed ancient commercial buildings and two-story homes.
- Examine frescoes and earthenware jars that were preserved for millennia in volcanic ash.
- Remain in enchanting Fira to explore or shop, if you choose.
- Wear casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable walking shoes.
- Bring a hat, sunglasses and sunscreen.

This tour includes two hours of significant walking, plus any additional walking at the guest's discretion during free time. There will be inclines and uneven surfaces to negotiate. The tour is not available to guests who utilize a wheelchair and it may not be suitable for guests with mobility issues, who are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina. At the conclusion of the tour, guests have the option of descending to the port via cable car or staying in town and returning to the ship independently. JTR-010 SANTORINI WINERY & OIA

Duration: 4.00 Hrs Tour Price: $0.00

Date: September 09, 2022 08:15 AM

Appreciate an enchanting village clinging to the side of a caldera and visit a popular winery on this engaging tour. Gain valuable insight into the production of Santorini's most renowned vintages during your guided exploration of a specially selected winery. You'll learn that the volcanic composition of the island's soil, scant rainfall and strong winds contribute to the terroir that lends Santorini's grapes their unique characteristics. After your tour, relax and participate in a tasting of some of the winery's most notable selections. Settle in for a scenic coach ride to Oia, a quaint village once home to wealthy seafarers that is built on the dramatically steep slope of a now-submerged caldera formed in a volcanic eruption around 3,500 years ago. You'll discover aged, two-story mansions painted in soothing pastel colors and homes nestled in niches hewn into the volcanic rock. Stroll through Oia's narrow, cobbled streets and find myriad tiny shops that offer an enticing collection of handmade ceramics, paintings and semi-precious jewelry. You'll enjoy time on your own to wander this captivating hamlet, perhaps catching a glimpse of Nea Kameni, an active volcano, and Santorini's capital of Fira from a quaint café at the cliff's edge.

- Enjoy a tasting of premier vintages following a tour of a well-known winery.
- Learn the effect Santorini's terroir has on the distinctive character of the island wines.
- Journey to Santorini's northern shore and explore enchanting Oia, once a wealthy fishing village.
- Delight in a guided walking tour of Oia along cobblestone lanes and past pastel-hued mansions.
- Browse inviting shops for handmade ceramic art, paintings and unique jewelry.
- View the active volcano Nea Kameni and the capital city of Fira from a cliffside café during free time.

Duration: 4.50 Hrs Tour Price: $139.00

Retail Price: $289.00

Date: September 09, 2022 09:00 AM

Visit three of the island's most exceptional wineries to sample their signature vintages, many of which will be thoughtfully paired with delectable local mezes. Take in marvelous views and captivating scenery before arriving at the family-owned Venetsanos Winery, which overlooks the spectacular submerged Santorini caldera. After a guided tour, you'll sample three premier wines in their cellar, which may include a dry white made from the island's flagship assyrtiko grape, a red with fruit aromas produced from mandilaria grapes and a full-bodied rosé. You'll learn that the volcanic composition of the island's soil, scant rainfall and strong winds contribute to the terroir that lends Santorini's wines their unique characteristics. At the Santo Winery, participate in a tasting while the vintner explains the kouloura method of hand pruning, in which the vines are shaped into a spiral close to the ground to protect them from strong winds. You'll delve even deeper into Santorini's wine-making heritage in the tasting room at Domaine Sigalas, where their vintages will be paired with local delicacies such as white eggplant, goat cheese and olives. Relish this glimpse into the widely acclaimed and luscious world of Santorini's wines.

- Journey to the family-owned Venetsanos Winery, which perches over Santorini's magnificent submerged caldera.
- Enjoy a tasting of three of Venetsanos' premier vintages following a guided tour.
- Learn the effect Santorini's terroir has on the distinctive character of the island's wines.

Duration: 7.50 Hrs Tour Price: $119.00

Retail Price: $269.00

(Prices in USD, per person)

Date: September 09, 2022 09:00 AM

See how volcanic activity has altered the course of Santorini's history, shaped the landscape and left the soil abundantly fertile. The devastation of a volcanic eruption thousands of years ago will be evident in the village Akrotiri, the so-called Pompeii of the Bronze Age. Excavations have uncovered homes with colorful frescoes and streets lined with commercial buildings that reveal urban life in the Minoan period. Another historical perspective awaits you in the village of Pyrgos, where you will see a 13th-century Venetian castle. The vineyards surrounding neighboring Episkopi have taken advantage of Santorini's mineral-rich volcanic soil to produce extraordinary wines, a sampling of which you will enjoy as a prelude to a traditional Greek lunch. You may notice that the white wines have an appealing citrus aroma. Finally, you will visit cliff-top Oia, which offers spectacular views of an ancient caldera that a volcanic eruption left in its wake. It's a classic whitewashed village to ramble through during free time.

- Explore four villages, each with its own allure and historical significance.
- See the excavated ruins of Akrotiri that were once covered in volcanic ash.
- Sample a selection of wines made from grapes that flourish in Santorini's volcanic soil.
- Behold the beauty of Oia, a classic whitewashed village perched high above the sea.
- Dress in weather-appropriate clothing.

JTR-003 VOLCANO, HOT SPRINGS AND WINERY VISIT

Duration: 4.00 Hrs Tour Price: $0.00

Retail Price: $159.00

Date: September 09, 2022 09:15 AM

Peer into the crater of a still-active volcano, swim in warm thermal springs and tour a local winery on this adventurous tour. Board a caique, a traditional fishing boat, and sail to the lava rock islet of Nea Kameni, where you'll take an approximately 20-minute walk up an unpaved path among lava fragments and volcanic rock formations toward the crater of a still-active volcano. Perhaps you'll observe steam rising from the crater's walls and capture photos of the fascinating phenomenon. Re-board the caique for a short cruise to the thermal springs at the nearby island of Palea Kameni and enjoy a dip in the warm, sulfur-enriched waters. Back on the mainland, rejoin your coach and ascend the steep sides of the rocky caldera wall on your way to a popular local winery. You'll tour the cellars and participate in a tasting of three of their most celebrated wines, accompanied by barley rusks and local cheese. In captivating Fira, the island's capital built on the rim of the caldera wall, you'll appreciate free time to explore the town or simply soak up magnificent panoramic views of this stunning volcanic island and the cobalt Aegean Sea.

- Climb to the crater's rim of a still-active volcano on the islet of Nea Kameni.
- View lava fragments, volcanic rock formations and steam likely rising from the crater.
- Enjoy a refreshing swim in a warm thermal spring at Palea Kameni, a tiny island.
- Discover a popular local winery and sample three of their most well-known vintages.
- Savor time on your own in Fira to sightsee, shop or revel in the breathtaking views.
- Wear casual, weather-appropriate clothing and closed-toe, rubber sole walking shoes.
- If you wish to swim, wear swimwear under a cover-up and bring a towel from the ship.
- Bring a hat, sunglasses and sunscreen.

This tour includes challenging and strenuous walking. There will be uneven surfaces and steep hills to negotiate. Participants should be in good physical condition. The tour is not available to guests who utilize a wheelchair or guests with mobility concerns. Guests who participate in any water activities do so at their own risk and responsibility. Due to the high sulfur content of the springs, bathing suits could become discolored. Cancellation due to weather conditions is at the discretion of the tour operator and the itinerary is subject to change without notice. Participants must be at least 21 years of age to be served alcoholic beverages. Guests making wine purchases at the winery for shipment to their homes are advised that, due to Customs regulations, delivery can take up to three months.

Duration: 9.75 Hrs Tour Price: $119.00

Retail Price: $269.00

Date: September 10, 2022 08:30 AM

Gaze at Delphi's Temple of Apollo, considered by ancient Greeks to be the physical and spiritual center of the earth. Following a scenic drive through the Greek countryside, arrive at Delphi, a UNESCO World Heritage site. Perched on the slopes of legendary Mount Parnassus, you'll find the ruins of the 15th-century BC Temple of Apollo. Learn that ancient Athenians believed unwaveringly that the Oracle of Delphi, also known as the Pythia, was a direct conduit for Apollo's cryptic, prophetic words. View the Castalian Spring, where a supplicant wishing for answers first purified himself, and the Sacred Way, once lined with statues and treasures. Farther up the hill, you'll find a well-preserved stadium and an expansive theater with excellent acoustics. Visit the Delphi Archeological Museum to see the Omphalos, a rounded stone indicating the navel of the world, and the stunning 5th-century BC bronze Charioteer, one of the best-known statues from Classical Greece. Journey to the picturesque village of Arachova, nestled at the foot of Mount Parnassus, and conclude your tour with a delicious luncheon of traditional Greek dishes.

- Visit iconic Delphi, a storied UNESCO World Heritage site on Mount Parnassus.
- Discover the Castalian Spring, where petitioners cleansed themselves before approaching the Oracle of Delphi.
- Admire the ruins of a theater renowned for its excellent acoustics.
- View Delphi's carefully preserved stadium, which once accommodated over 6,500 spectators.
- Explore the Delphi Archeological Museum and see treasures unearthed from the site's excavation.
- Relish a flavorful lunch of traditional Greek dishes in picture-perfect Arachova
- Wear casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable, non-slip walking shoes.

PIR-003 HISTORIC CORINTH AND THE CANAL

Duration: 4.50 Hrs Tour Price: $0.00

Retail Price: $149.00

(Prices in USD, per person)

Date: September 10, 2022 08:45 AM

Study the fascinating ruins of ancient Corinth and the dramatic Corinth Canal on this enlightening tour. In enthralling Corinth, discover remains that are an intriguing meld of a 6th-century BC wealthy Greek city and a 44 BC thriving Roman metropolis. You'll view excavations such as a sacred spring with 5th-century BC lion-head spouts, a huge colonnaded marketplace, the seven remaining Doric columns of Apollo's Temple and the Lechaion Road, formerly a main harbor thoroughfare. Learn that the apostle Saint Paul lived and preached to the Corinthians in this area for nearly two years, and see the platform, or bema, on which he stood trial. From a 200-foot-high bridge, you'll view the breathtaking Corinth Canal, a four-mile-long feat of engineering that is only 70 feet wide and features sheer sides rising to 170 feet. Although the first attempt to connect the Aegean and the Ionian seas dates back to the 7th century BC, discover construction on the canal didn't commence until 1881. You'll long ponder these thought-provoking sites that reach back over two millennia.

- Explore ancient Corinth, a fascinating site showcasing both Roman and Greek ruins.
- Appreciate the striking columns of the Temple of Apollo and the expansive agora marketplace.
- Discover ruins of the platform where the apostle Saint Paul stood while on trial by the Romans.
- Take in the awe-inspiring Corinth Canal, which connects the Aegean and Ionian Seas.
- Wear casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable walking shoes.
- Bring a hat, sunglasses and sunscreen.

Tour involves walking for approximately 1/2 mile on uneven and gravel terrain. Neither the Corinth ancient site, nor the canal motorboat are wheelchair accessible. Depending on the prevailing traffic in the canal, a slight delay may be experienced while crossing. Those guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina. This tour does not operate on Tuesdays as the canal undergoes maintenance on this day, nor does it operate from the end of November through mid-April.
