ESNA, EGYPT

Temple of Khum

Khum was one of the earliest-known Egyptian dieties, originally the god of the source of the Nile. Since the annual flooding brought with it silt and clay, and its water brought life to its surroundings, he was thought to be the creator of the bodies of human children, which he made at a potter's wheel from clay, and placed in their mothers' wombs. He was later described as having moulded the other deities, and he had the titles "Divine Potter" and "Lord of created things from himself"

Today's Highlights

Enjoy your visit to the Temple of Khum before we enjoy a day sailing on the Nile to Aswan. This evening we look forward to seeing everyone in the Galabeyan Outfits! If you have not already, make sure you stop by the shop on Deck 2 to pick out your Galabeya Outfit.
